

Free Write – Faye

A professional – like her dad.

Thought of her as an estate agent – but not sure I want to do that because of the theme/plot. Could be in marketing, something a little pushy.

Married – no kids, business first, was going to – now too late. Her husband is an artist, very easy going and enjoys his work.

She's been having to travel to Nottingham where George lives. He's been managing fine on his own, happy to let things slide a bit because of his age, but Faye is not happy.

She doesn't like the fact that her dad is obviously getting older. She feels threatened.

Faye wishes her mum was still alive – she would have kept things 'normal'. The change has affected Faye.